VICTIMS OF ZR-2 REACH NEW YORK ON THE DAUNTLESS

Ship Greeted With Salute from Forts and the Tolling of Church Bells as It Enters the Harbor—Caskets Are Carried Ashore
by British Blue Jackets—Services Today

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, Sept. 16.—Resting in flag-shrouded caskets covered with masses of flowers and guarded by armed men of a friendly, foreign nation, the bodies of Commander Louis H. Maxfield and fourteen of his comrades—victims of the ZR-2 disaster—arrived home today on the British Cruiser Dauntless.

It was a far different home-coming than the victims had anticipated when they sailed some months ago for England to prepare and bring back the monster dirigible, the disaster which on a trial flight sent 42 heroic men of two nations to their untimely death.

Far out at sea the Dauntless was met by a destroyer division of the United States navy. As it neared port, the fleet was augmented by a fleet of seaplanes, representing the arm of the service for which the victims gave their lives. As the funeral ship came up the harbor, the forts thundered a salute, church bells tolled on the Brooklyn and Staten Island shores and passing craft dipped their colors in reverential salutes.

JUDGE SMITH GRANTS CHANGE FROM HIS COURT

Takes First Steps in Small Embezzlement Case

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 16.—Judge E. S. Smith, before whom was presented petitions for a change of venue of the case in which Governor Len Small is charged with embezzlement of state funds, today granted a change from his court as the latest formal move in the sensational case involving alleged irregularities in conduct of the state treasury.

Arguments on the governor's petition for a change of venue from Sangamon county will not be made before September 26, according to an agreement today when the case was continued until that date. The arguments will be made before either Judge Norman L. Jones or Judge Frank W. Burton, Judge Smith's associates on the circuit court bench.

In granting the transfer from his court, Judge Smith followed the course of ordinary procedure in change of venue cases.

EVERYBODY SHOULD HAVE $250 SAVED

FATTY ARBUCKLE TO BE TRIED ON MURDER CHARGE

This is Decision of Officials After Conferences

(By The Associated Press)
SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Sept. 16.—The way was cleared today for the trial of Roscoe C. (Fatty) Arbuckle, motion picture comedian, on a charge of murder resulting from the death of Miss Virginia Rappe, motion picture actress, in a sanitarium Friday, Sept. 9, after she is alleged to have been attacked at a party given by Arbuckle at his rooms in the St. Francis Hotel Monday, Sept. 5.

The returning of four charges against Arbuckle, two for murder and two for manslaughter, necessitated conferences during the week between District Attorney Brady and police officials as to the exact charge on which he shall be tried. It was decided today that the charge should be murder and the police court in which Arbuckle's case is pending, was so advised.

The undertaking establishment having the body of Miss Rappe, announced that it would be sent to Los Angeles tonight for interment in the Hollywood cemetery.

A new development today was the announcement that Dr. Arthur Beardsley, house physician at the St. Francis Hotel and the physician who first attended Miss Rappe, is being sought by the authorities. Milton T. U'ren, assistant district attorney, announced late today that the police and detectives had been unable to locate him and asked the newspapers to assist in the search. Dr. Beardsley is wanted for the purpose of giving testimony before the grand jury regarding certain phases of the medical attention given Miss Rappe, U'ren said.

Big Crowds Gather
Bigger crowds than usual greeted Arbuckle's public appearance today. A few moments before his case was called in Police Judge Sylvain J. Lazarus' court for a preliminary hearing on one of the murder charges, the crowd, mostly men, attempted to rush thru the doors. They were held back by police. Members of the women's vigilance committee formed for the purpose of assisting the police and prosecuting officials of the city in maintaining law and order were present at the court hearing.

Following the court session, District Attorney Brady gave out a statement in which he explained the reasons for his determination to press the murder charge. Later in the day he appeared before the finance committee of the county board of supervisors and asked that a special fund be provided for him with which to prosecute the Arbuckle case.

"This defendant is reputed to be wealthy," he said. "He has influential friends. We must spend money if we want to prosecute this case successfully, otherwise we may meet with disaster."

"We may have to go to all parts of the United States for evidence."

Money for Prosecution
The committee voted him an immediate $1,000 for this fund and told him that more would be forthcoming when it is needed. Arbuckle must appear in the court of Superior Judge Harold Landwehr to answer to various charges.

One charge was voted by the grand jury Wednesday.

The arraignment is merely a formal proceeding, however, but Arbuckle if he desires, may plead on the charge or the district attorney may make a motion to have it held in abeyance until the murder charge is disposed of.

Arbuckle's next appearance on the murder charge has been set for next Thursday at 1 p. m., in Judge Lazarus' court, at which time it is expected that he will give his preliminary examination.

Bitter Fight For Legion Commander

(By The Associated Press)

DECATUR, Ill., Sept. 16.—Members of the executive committee of the Illinois American Legion, in session here today, formally called upon David Hannan, of Chicago, to substantiate or withdraw his charges of "malfeasance in office, imbruing the integrity and efficiency of the department Commander McCauley and other department officers."

Hannan, a member of the committee, was present and spoke in defense of his accusations. Following which the committee adopted another resolution stating that Hannan had wholly failed to substantiate his charges and that "in view of Hannan's candidacy for commander of the Illinois legion, his conduct should not be the subject of present action by this committee."

When the meeting had closed, Mr. Hannan told a newspaperman that he could not and would back the charges he had made before or at the time of the state convention in Decatur, October 10-11.

"I am not going to give them my campaign material now," said Mr. Hannan.

The war between Commander McCauley and Mr. Hannan began when Mr. Hannan severely criticized the legion commander for his activities in behalf of Carl Wanderer.

Preparations are being made for the entertainment of from 10,000 to 15,000 legionnaires in Decatur during the two days of the convention. The fight for the post of commander will be the center of attention. Three candidates besides Commander McCauley and Mr. Hannan are now in the field. They are Col. John V. Clinch and Col. Horatio B. Hackett of Chicago, and Lieutenant Ralph Harkness of Waukegan.

CHIEF OF AIR SERVICE ASKS TO BE RELIEVED

Charles T. Menoher Makes Request of Secretary Weeks

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—After nearly three years of service, Major General Charles T. Menoher has requested to be relieved as chief of the air service.

This became known today, Secretary Weeks in response to inquiries announcing that General Menoher had asked formally to be released as air service head and to be transferred to command of troops in the field.

It was indicated that the general's desires would be granted. General Menoher declined to discuss his request for release in any way, but Secretary Weeks declared it was based on a desire to return to the work of a line officer. It was emphasized that friction between General Menoher and Brig. Gen. William, assistant chief of the air service which became openly manifest several months ago, had no connection with the request.

General Menoher was appointed chief of the air service in December, 1918, then being in command of the sixth army corps in France, and previous to that having commanded the forty-second or Rainbow Division.

FATHER CUTS OFF DAUGHTER IN WILL

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Because she married against her father's wishes, Mrs. Edith C. Kuharske is left only two farms near Rockford, Ill., according to the will of her father, Charles B. Cleveland, which was filed for probate today.

Mr. Cleveland was general west-end agent for the New England Mutual Life Insurance company and left an estate estimated at $500,000.

After citing numerous instances of financial help he had given his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. Cleveland's will said in part: "In short I have expended in the last fifteen years in the futile effort to locate this family and given them a home of their own choosing where I hoped her foolish husband could earn a living, the sum of $250,000, all frittered thru reckless extravagance."

"I therefore I do not consider her or her husband capable of handling money."

Mrs. Kuharske married seventeen years ago despite the protests of her father.

TERRA COTTA FIRMS HAVE SCHOOL?

Chicago, Sept. 16.—Testimony that numerous middlewestern terra cotta firms had organized a school in which estimators were trained so that each would reach the same figure in estimating a job, was given before the Dailey legislative building investigating committee today by C. L. Bradford, an employee of the Midland Terra Cotta company.

Mr. Bradford testified that a majority of the members of the Central Terra Cotta association sent their estimator to their school to learn to make identical bids.

FRANK T. SHEETS IS NEW HEAD OF STATE HIGHWAYS

Appointed by Small to Succeed S. E. Bradt Who Resigned

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Sept. 16.—Frank T. Sheets, engineer of design in the state division of highways, was appointed superintendent of the division by Governor Small today to succeed S. E. Bradt of Dekalb, for eight years head of highways division. Sheets has been with the state department since 1907.

Mr. Bradt, it was announced at the governor's office, resigned his office, the resignation to become effective Sept. 20, the date when Sheets takes the place as Bradt's successor.

Speaking of Mr. Bradt's service as the state highway head for eight years, Governor Small said: "Much of the success of the state's hard road building program in its early stages is due to Mr. Bradt's efforts and he is entitled to due credit."

Announcement of Sheet's appointment was made by Governor Small tonight, following a conference with Colonel C. R. Miller, director of the department of public works. Governor Small said:

"The early completion of our good road program is a part of this administration's most important work. Mr. Sheets' acceptance of the position will serve to hasten my pledge to push the construction of our hard roads with all possible speed and at the same time secure a dollar's worth of roads for every dollar spent."

"We are breaking records with our road construction program. The price has been reduced from $40,000 per mile to an average of $27,500. Our last weekly report shows we built during the week nearly 19 miles of road. We have completed this year nearly 300 miles. We have let contracts this year for approximately 335 miles. On October 4 we will receive bids for 189 miles more. Five thousand men, 1,000 teams and over 100 concrete mixers are now at work over fifty counties in the state."

"This work must be pushed. Mr. Sheets will do it. He came to the department as a boy sixteen years of age. Save the time spent securing his engineering degree he has been with it ever since. He knows the work from top to bottom. He is recognized as one of the most successful highway engineers in America. The people of Illinois are fortunate to have him at the head of their road program."

MORE AGENCIES ARE LOCATED

REVISION OF HOUSE TAX BILL VIRTUALLY COMPLETED FRIDAY

Retains Present Rates on Express and Oil by Pipe Lines—Incomes of from $5,000 to $6,000 Relieved of Present Surtax of One Per Cent—Smoot Will Offer Substitute

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—Revision of the house tax bill was virtually completed today by the senate finance committee which on Wednesday under the present agreement will report to the senate a measure having these outstanding proposals:

Reduction of the income surtax rates from a maximum of 65 per cent to 32 per cent, effective next January.

An increase in the corporation income tax from ten per cent to fifteen per cent effective next January 1, instead of twelve and one-half per cent as proposed by the house.

Repeal of the corporation capital stock tax as of next year.

Retention of present rates on express packages and oil by pipe lines and retention of the taxes on freight and passengers for the calendar year 1922, only at half the present rates of three per cent and eight per cent respectively. The house proposed repeal of all of these taxes as of next January 1.

In agreeing to the house maximum surtax rates of 32 per cent the senate committee adopted today a re-arranged schedule of rates under which individuals having incomes from $5,000 to $6,000 would be relieved of the present surtax of one per cent.

Beginning with incomes of $6,000 and ending with those of $20,000 the rate in each bracket would be reduced one per cent. In the brackets from $20,000 to $34,000 the existing rates would be increased one per cent and in the brackets from $34,000 to $66,000 the present rates would stand. Incomes of $66,000 or more would be taxed at a maximum rate.

Members of the committee explained that thru this plan and the increased exemptions allowed to heads of families and on account of dependents there would be a reduction of the income taxes case of single men having incomes all along the line except in the of $5,000 or less.

The loss in revenue thru the re-arrangement of the surtax rates was estimated by treasury experts at $18,000,000 making the total annual loss in individual income taxes $178,000,000 including $10,000,000 thru reduction of the maximum surtax rates and $70,000,000 thru increased exemption to heads of families and on account of dependents.

Chairman Penrose announced today that in offering the bill in the senate he would ask that it be made the unfinished business so as to bring early consideration. He was of the opinion that its passage would not be long delayed.

After the senate acts the bill will go to conference for the comparison of differences between the senate and house.

Will Offer Substitute
Senator Smoot of Utah, a Republican member of the finance committee, plans to offer in the senate as a substitute for the whole measure his bill in which is incorporated a manufacturers' tax plan. This measure has the support of a number of manufacturers' associations, representatives of which are in conference here this week.

Senator Smoot's bill was deferred today until next Wednesday but the committee will hold another session tomorrow to gather up loose ends. At that time, Senator Smoot will offer his substitute bill and Senator Capper, Republican, New York, plans to introduce his proposal for a tax of $5 a barrel on 2.75 per cent beer.

The committee reconsidered today its decision to include in the bill a manufacturers' tax of two per cent on proprietary medicines and adopted the house proposal to remove all taxes on these articles. Its proposal for a four per cent tax on cosmetics, perfumes and toilet preparations in lieu of the present stamp taxes, effective next January 1, stands, however. In order to make the taxes on soft drinks uniform, the committee voted to fix the tax on finished fountain syrups at 7½ cents a gallon, instead of ten cents.

DEVALERA SENDS NEW MESSAGE TO PREMIER GEORGE

Believed it Indicates Desire to Continue Negotiations

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, Sept. 16.—In a telegram sent this evening to Premier Lloyd George at Gairloch, Scotland, Eamonn DeValera is considered in high quarters in London to have indicated a desire for a continuation of the negotiations looking to peace in Ireland which were terminated momentarily at least, by Mr. DeValera's communication of earlier in the week, insisting on the independence of Ireland and Mr. Lloyd George's cancellation of the conference with delegates of the Sinn Fein which he had proposed for next Tuesday.

Up to a late hour tonight, Mr. Lloyd George had made no response but the consensus of opinion was that since neither side to the argument seemingly is desirous of a rupture in the negotiations, there doubtless would be a further exchange of messages.

The general view in London is that the hitch has arisen because both Mr. Lloyd George and Mr. DeValera are compelled to keep an eye on the extremists in their respective cabinets, but that behind both there also is strong public opinion in favor of peace, this feeling being as strong in England as in Ireland.

Sinn Fein Leaders Surprised

From advices received in London the Sinn Fein leaders were surprised by the effect of Mr. DeValera's letter which induced Mr. Lloyd George to cancel the proposed conference. From their view it would seem that the Sinn Fein leaders in Dublin hold the view that their leader's letter was unfortunately phrased, and that it is advisable to make a further attempt to bring about a conference. It appears to be realized, however, that some weeks will be lost in the process of attempting to clarify the situation. There is now some talk of holding a conference in London in October.

Premier Lloyd George has not yet called the meeting of his cabinet but it is expected this will be early next week at Inverness or a Gairloch, where the premier is now staying. It is expected that there will be an early session of the Dail Eireann and consideration of the new aspects of the situation.

A sales concern distributing food products offers "suggested menus for these crisp September mornings." Evidently this advertising campaign must have been planned weeks ago in accordance with the weather records of the almanac instead of based upon the September thermometer readings.

Mark Sullivan is a political writer of no small renown. So Attorney General Daugherty will probably not be displeased with a recent statement by Mr. Sullivan that "the attorney general is a success in his department and a tower of strength to the Harding administration."

While many people threaten the states thought that Mr. Daugherty would handle the affairs under his jurisdiction in a very "political" way, they are finding, according to the political writer quoted, that the highest standards of service prevail instead of the merely "political."

THE FALL "CAMPAIGNS."

In Bloomington they are raising $9,000 for the Boy Scout work of the year and an appeal is shortly to be made for aiding this work in the Near East.
In Quincy the Salvation Army campaign is in progress and in fact in many Illinois cities and towns the fall drives for funds for various causes are under way.
These things suggest that the proposed conference in Jacksonville to settle what shall be done with several possible "campaigns" is quite timely.

CONFERENCE IS THE LACKING THING.

Local bankers have said that business conditions here are not just normal but that there is far greater wealth in the county than was true in the pre-war period.
There is plenty of money with capital available for all legitimate business enterprises, but the lack of confidence, a fear for what the future holds, is the deterring influence.

What is true in this county is likewise true elsewhere, and the fact that there is an abundance of money in the country is proven by the fact that the double subscription for the government's $600,000,000 short term notes.

WELL SATISFIED ON THE RHINE.

Senator McKinley, who has just returned from a trip to Germany, says the folks back home need not worry about the American soldiers on the Rhine and the desire to come home. According to the Illinois senator no such desire exists at this time for the soldiers are living too luxuriously.
The reason is that the money they receive from Uncle Sam has many times its original value in buying power in Germany. This is, of course, due to the depressed conditions of German currency, the German mark, worth 24 cents in American money before the war, now being about one cent.
At any rate, the proof is at hand that the clamor for the return of the soldiers on the Rhine does not originate from the service men themselves.

THE VALUE OF THE HOPEFUL VIEW.

At a time when agricultural conditions are depressed because of the big drop in prices, the man of experience who talks in hopeful vein makes a contribution to the public. That is the case with John C. Andrus, of Manchester, known as one of the largest landowners in central Illinois, a student not only of agriculture but of finance as well.

Mr. Andrus is not a land speculator and has no acreage for sale, so that he cannot be accused of self interest when declaring his belief that there is no reason for undue gloom, that the farmer who keeps "pegging away" in a consistent and businesslike way will find conditions much more satisfactory a few months hence.

Doubtless Mr. Andrus has made a survey of the whole horizon and is basing his opinion both upon experience and knowledge of conditions. Certainly there is ground for the feeling that the numerous relief measures which are being fostered for the aid of the agricultural and livestock industries will do no very distant day begin to show the hoped-for results. With prices as they are now, certainly the farmer can feel that the horizon has been reached and that the business in which he is engaged is on the upgrade.

RELIGION ESSENTIAL THING IN BUSINESS

Roger Babson's Remarkable Book Discussed by Rev. W. H. Marbach With Rotarians.

The Friday luncheon of the Rotary club was held at the Pacific hotel Friday with Vincent Riley presiding. Several matters of business were discussed and then the club members had the pleasure of listening to an informal address by Rev. W. H. Marbach.

Mr. Marbach took for discussion Roger W. Babson's book, "Religion and Business." For years past Mr. Babson has been famous for the business statistical bureau that he maintains and his comments from time to time upon business conditions. In recent months he has been more extensively quoted than ever before and has continued to lay emphasis upon the thought that the right religious conditions are essential to right business conditions. It is Mr. Babson's belief that one of the greatest needs of the times is to give the Golden Rule its proper place in the business world.

Mr. Marbach quoted passages from the book mentioned and then in a very informing way discussed some of the theories that Mr. Babson advances. The speaker evidently believes that Mr. Babson is doing a vast amount of good by his pronouncements. At the same time Mr. Marbach did not hesitate to disagree with some of the conclusions reached by the statistician when discussing religious themes. Some paragraphs in the book were quoted as follows:

The Souls of Men.
"Without doubt the greatest of undeveloped resources are the souls of men. Statistics teach that practically all that we have today in the form of factories, stores, railroads, steamships, newspapers and books is due to the enterprise of 2 per cent of the population. This suggests what can be accomplished if this 2 per cent could be increased to 4 per cent, 8 or 12 per cent. If all that we have today is the result of the faith, enterprise and courage of only 2 per cent of the people, what changes if this 2 per cent could be increased."

"Statistics lead me to believe that the faith, industry, thrift and enterprise in people are very largely due to religion. The American captains of industry who are accomplishing things today are not all church men or religious men, but it can be shown that they all owe the basis of their success to religion of themselves or others. Historians are united in believing that the enterprise of America and northern Europe is due to religion and climate. As the climate has been the same for thousands of years this means that the great constructive force has been and is today religion. The enterprise, industry and thrift of any country or group of people can be measured by the religious faith of the people. Where the people are religious there are found enterprise, industry and thrift. Where the people are irreligious are found indifference, wastefulness and extravagance."

The Possibilities of Religion.
"Yet there has been little effort on the part of the church to connect religious work with the development of men along such lines of efficiency. 'Religion is to become the great factor in causing men to say, 'I will.' It will be religion which will increase that 2 per cent who now say 'I will' to 6 per cent or 8 per cent, or perhaps to 50 to 70 per cent. Think what that would give to industry, production, distribution and other economic forces."

"The money spent during the Pershing border campaign would have been sufficient to establish a public school system, a college and a hospital in every Mexican city and town with a population over 4,000 people. In addition, an endowment of several hundred thousand dollars would have been available for educational purposes in each of these communities. These figures are based on the cost of only the first year's campaign. If the total cost up to the present time were considered the figures would be most astounding."

"Again if we would spend on schools and hospitals and Christian propaganda in Japan one-tenth of what we are spending on our army and navy to protect us against Japan, a war with Japan could be avoided."

"The churches hold the only key to our international and national difficulties. We know this, and the world knows it, yet we still are trying to solve the problems in the old way—with armies, navies and unprincipled diplomacy. Why is it that we longer continue this inconsistency?"

"The real security of the nation is not its military but rather its religion. Business men who are interested in checking up these figures may examine the 'Building Permits,' the 'Bank Deposits' and the 'Shipping Receipts' for any community. If these figures are studied for a sufficient length of time, they will show what proportion of the bank savings and various other work of the community is due to the religious community."

R. E. HARMON HOME FROM CALIFORNIA

R. E. Harmon, who has been director of athletics at Santa Clara university in Santa Clara, California, for the past two years, has returned to Jacksonville and is visiting his mother, Mrs. Katherine Harmon, of East College avenue.

Mr. Harmon went to California in 1919 and took charge at Santa Clara. The schools had never played the American game of football and he had a hard task, but last year he developed a team that ranked with the best on the coast. About the time he began to make preparations for the coming season the school suddenly abandoned athletics and all of his work went for naught.

He had some of the most promising men on the Pacific coast in his squad and had expected to rank next to the University of California this year. Mr. Harmon has had several offers for the coming season but has not accepted any of them. He has no definite plans and for the present will remain here. He is looking fine and much enjoyed his stay on the coast.

Battle Scenes
No Fakes No Posing
NOTE—The picture is in nine reels and requires two hours to run. The various scenes were taken by members of the U. S. Signal Corps many of whom with their cameras actually on the firing line, paid the supreme price. The pictures are arranged in proper chronological order, showing movement of troops overseas and as they worked their way to the front lines. The two hour run abounds in thrills—the shelling of Turey, Belleau Wood actual gas attacks, tanks advancing behind barrage and in action. American troops forcing German prisoners out of their captured dugouts, air battles, observation balloons shot down, battle action, advancing under fire, the German dead at Chateau Thierry, and the ruins of many cities.

Yesterday morning a young man named Frank Ames rode into the city, having been given a kindly lift by Mr. and Mrs. Harlan White, on their way from St. Joseph, Mo., to their home in Pawnee, near Springfield.

Mr. Ames is a resident of San Francisco, 26 years old, and of a very pleasant appearance. He said his health had been poor and he was hiking across the country to improve it, and was evidently succeeding.

He had a wager that he would land in New York by Oct. 31, starting July 1st. He may accept an invitation to ride with anyone, but must not ask the privilege and he said he didn't find very many as kindly disposed as Mr. and Mrs. White. He had his faithful companion, a small dog, and seemed well pleased with his progress so far. He worked some but was not obliged to do so, as he had means to pay his way and he will surely make the trip if he has no misfortunes by the way.

A CIVIL WAR TIME SONG

Peter Chavanga, a Civil war veteran, has sent to Journal for publication an old song that Union prisoners used to sing. The title is "From Dixie's Sunny Land" and the air was "Twenty Years Ago." As a matter of interest to the old soldiers the verses are given herewith:

Dear friends and fellow-comrades brave, listen to our song, about the rebel prisons and our sojourn there so long.

Yet our wretched state and hardships great no one can understand.

But those who have endured this fate in Dixie's sunny land.

When captured by the chivalry (?) they stripped us to the skin, but failed to give us back again the value of a pin.

Except some lousy rags of gray discarded by their hand, and thus commenced our prison life in Dixie's sunny land.

'With a host of guards surrounding us, each with a loaded gun.

We were stationed in an open plain, exposed to rain and sun; No tent or tree to shelter us, we lay upon the sand—

Thus side by side great numbers died in Dixie's sunny land.

This was the daily "bill of fare" in that Seceesh saloon—No sugar, tea, or coffee there at morning, night, or noon;

But a "pint of meal, ground cob and man," was served to every man.

And for want of fire we ate it raw in Dixie's sunny land.

We were by these poor rations soon reduced to skin and bone, A lingering starvation—worse than death; you can but own.

There hundreds lay, both night and day, by far too weak to stand.

Till death relieved their sufferings in Dixie's sunny land.

We poor survivors oft were tried, by many a threat or bribe.

To desert our glorious "Union cause," and join the rebel tribe;

Though faint we were to leave the place, we let them understand "We had rather die than thus disgrace our flag!" in Dixie's sunny land.

Thus dreary days and nights rolled by—yes, weeks and months untold.

Until that happy time arrived when all were paroled;

We landed at Annapolis, a wretched looking band.

But glad to be alive and free from Dixie's sunny land.

How like a dream those days now seem in retrospective view.

As we regain our wasted strength, all dressed in "Union Blue!"

The debt we owe our bitter foe shall not have long to stand.

We shall pay it with a vengeance upon in Dixie's sunny land.

GENERAL DEBATES ON LEAGUE WORK NOW COMPLETED

Assembly Applauds When Told That Discussions
Are Ended

(By The Associated Press)

GENEVA, Sept. 16.—General debate on the work of the league was completed by the assembly of the league of nations today. The delegates applauded vigorously the announcement that the discussions which had consumed two weeks, were ended. The assembly will take a recess until it is called together to hear the report of the various committees, some of which will be ready early next week.

Organization of the international court of justice is now the center of interest in league circles. Confirmation of Judge F. V. N. Reichmann of Norway as the fourth deputy judge of the court and receipt of acceptances from six of the eleven judges selected Wednesday were the outstanding features of the day in this connection. The selection of Judge Reichmann by a joint conference after the assembly was made yesterday and approved today by the assembly on the fourth ballot.

The council voted unanimously in favor of his selection. John Bassett Moore, Elihu Root, Justice George Gray and Oscar S. Straus, American members of the permanent international high tribunal of arbitration at The Hague, have wired the league secretariat explaining why their organization had refrained from nominating any candidate for the international court of justice.

"Considering that our appointment by the president as members of the tribunal of arbitration was under The Hague convention of 1907 to perform functions contemplated in the convention," said the message, "and that your invitations for judges under the new permanent court of international justice is under another treaty to which the United States is not a party and in respect of which no authority has been conferred upon us we reluctantly have reached the conclusion that we are not entitled to make official nominations for the new court. We exceedingly regret that announcement of this conclusion has been unavoidably delayed."

NEW PROTECTION FOR ILLINOIS BANKS

Illinois Bankers' Association Will Have Personal Representative in Charge of Investigation of Robberies.

CHICAGO—(By A. P.)—New protective service for Illinois banks that are members of the Illinois Bankers' Association has been announced by headquarters here. This follows authorization of a new protective plan by the last state convention of the Illinois banks. New methods were rendered necessary by the excessive increase of attacks on banks in this state, said to run higher than robberies and burglaries in other states generally, because of Illinois' central location.

"The new protective department intends to make crime against members decidedly unpopular and unprofitable," declares the announcement of the Illinois Bankers' association. "There will be no compromise with criminals."

Head of the department is Edward S. Arenz of Chicago, formerly a confidential investigator for the Chicago civil service commission. The state association thus outlines its plans in its announcement to members:

"The new department has been organized to render the banks the individual service, for which there has been a long felt want. Immediately upon receipt of an attack upon a member bank, our representative will call as soon as it is possible to reach the point in question, prepared to take charge of the investigation, putting detectives to work where necessary, and will give every assistance in arranging satisfactory insurance settlements, etc."

"In this connection, we would urge upon the members the great importance of making prompt report to the secretary's office in the case of any criminal attack. Any delay, however short, cripples our efforts and lessens the chances of apprehension. Wire, if advisable, at our expense."

"The chief aim of the Department, however, is to impress upon the members the absolute necessity of preparedness. The predictions are that owing to the large army of unemployed, crime will very materially increase during the fall and winter months, and the Protective Department will only be able to cope successfully with the situation if it has the full co-operation of all the members. The first step for every bank which wishes to do its part in bringing crime in the state to a minimum, is to see to it that it has installed every possible protection in the way of burglar-proof equipment, burglar alarms and other safeguards."

"The reports being received daily evidence the fact that, one by one, the banks which have not heeded the advice of the protective committee with regard to providing burglar-proof equipment or burglar alarms, are being shown that they are not immune from attack. It is much more difficult and expensive to endeavor to apprehend crooks than it is to prevent their attacks, to say nothing of the inconvenience suffered and the loss of confidence which is sure to result from a burglary or robbery."

"The department will also concern itself with the prosecution of criminals, who have operated against members, to insure their swift and certain punishment. Too many of those guilty of crimes are free because of laxity in enforcing the law and maudlin sympathy. Malefactors will be pursued relentlessly and their punishment sought."

BELIEVE TELEGRAM WILL HELP MATTERS

DUBLIN, Sept. 16.—Men closely in touch with the leaders on both sides of the Irish question in conversations tonight expressed the opinion that the telegram to Premier Lloyd George by Eamon Devalera seemed greatly to improve the situation. They thought that if the Irish leader's position had been so stated in his letter to the premier, Mr. Lloyd George would not have cancelled the proposed conference.

It is clearly evident here that neither side to the controversy desires a break, but both factions seem unwilling to waive points of principle or make admissions which possibly might afterwards prove embarrassing. It is considered here that Mr. Devalera's telegram to the premier withdraws nothing that he previously has contended for, but that it is intended to facilitate a decision by the British cabinet in favor of a further conference.

PRESIDENT HAS POWER TO APPOINT

WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—President Harding's power to make recess appointments during the present adjournment of congress has been affirmed by Attorney General Daugherty in a formal opinion made public tonight by the department of justice. In his opinion Mr. Daugherty dissents from a ruling of Former General Knox handed down in 1901 and holds that where the senate has adjourned for a specified date the president must determine in his discretion "whether in a practical sense," that body is in session so that its consent can be given to appointments requiring confirmation.

"If the president's power of appointment is to be defeated because senate takes an adjournment to a specified date," Mr. Daugherty says, "the painful and inevitable result will be measurably to prevent the exercise of governmental functions. I cannot believe the framers of the constitution ever intended such a catastrophe to happen."

FOOD FOR STARVING RUSSIA IS DELAYED

RIGA, Sept. 12.—The unexpected delays inside Russia to American relief administration shipments, while the suffering in the famine district is increasing have brought more vividly into view the difficult transport problems and Colonel William Haskell, director of the American relief administration work in Russia is expected immediately to deal with this situation on his arrival in Riga next Monday.

Advices that the first complete food shipment destined for the Volga region required three weeks for an ordinary five day trip, surprised the Riga base of the relief administration which despite the failure of the soviet authorities to furnish railway cars as fast as had been expected had succeeded in getting the shipments started toward Moscow in fairly good time.

CONGREGATIONALISTS WELCOME NEW PASTOR

reception and Supper Given In the Pilgrim Memorial Room Friday Evening—Number of Brief Addresses and a Social Time Followed.

The one word above all others in the Pilgrim Memorial Room last night was "Welcome." It was written on a flag. It was not on the wall but it was apparent in the countenance of the church and congregation of the Congregational church who gathered to tell their pastor and wife that they were welcome to church, the hearts and homes of the people.

The welcome reception had been postponed to a date which could bring all vacation absentees back and the whole affair was a grand success for it was a social event; the welcome to the pastor and the greetings to his wife. Nor was it all taken in words. There was a beautiful set of Sheffield silver ware from the church in general while the girl scouts presented a set of silver knives, forks and spoons and the boys a carving set.

Of course a supper was a prominent feature of such an occasion and it was excellent and admirably served by the young girls and boys of the Sunday school. It was fully enjoyed and received many compliments. Mrs. Frank Heintz, Mrs. F. J. Waddell, Mrs. W. A. Fay, Mrs. W. B. Young, Messrs. J. P. Lippincott and W. D. Wood were the committee on the supper, while Miss S. M. Fairbank, Mrs. George E. Myers, Mrs. Eugene Koefe, Mrs. H. L. Caldwell, William A. Fay and Vorce Bassett were the committee on presents. All did their work well.

The Church and the Community. After supper had been enjoyed Dr. C. E. Black was introduced as toastmaster and with felicitous remarks he introduced the various speakers. He told what a small part of the community belong to any church and wondered if all the church members were doing their whole duty in gathering in the outsiders. He wondered if churches didn't have an oversupply of praying people who did nothing else and not enough active workers.

He said the first sentiment proposed would be the spirit of 50 years ago and mentioned some of the many great events that took place then. Stanley found Livingstone, Alsace and Lorraine were ceded to Germany and many other momentous events took place then and he asked J. P. Lippincott to respond to the sentiment. The gentleman spoke in his usual happy manner depicting the facts and incidents of half a century gone by. He told in a graphic manner of the men of those days, the problems they faced and the difficulties they encountered and the victories they won.

As the human body is supposed to undergo a complete change once in seven years, so has the church undergone great changes in half a century not more than ten persons belonging then being active members now.

But so many have gone the work does not stop. The Joy Prairie church has gone out of existence but its influence will not die while time lasts. The church cordially greets the pastor and she whom he has brought to preside over his home has won the hearts of all and both are heartily welcome.

In Earlier Years. The spirit of 1823 was assigned to William D. Wood, who told eloquently of the early days. He had known but few of the founders of the church but a spirit of independence possessed them and they dared to do that which took courage, grit and determination. They were liberal but evangelical, a rare combination. They asked and granted freedom in all things; they were reverent and Godly.

He paid an especial tribute to the first pastor, Rev. William Carter whom he had known personally. The reverend gentleman lived in the same community as the speaker's parents for years and was esteemed most highly in every way; a man of fervent piety; fine spirit, good education; a faithful pastor and kind, loving, devoted friend.

The church may well be proud of such a galaxy of names as Carter, Post, Wolcott, Sturtevant and humble at the same time when we think of their wonderful superiority. Success will only attend hearty cooperation with the pastor and strong, united effort.

The spirit of 1921 was given E. M. Spink, who dwelt on the present. He argued the greatest need of strong, united effort for the policy of the Congregational church is no higher powers in the church; no organization to have any control over the individual units. Hence that is a natural source of weakness of all things thrive by organization a fact of which we must take notice. Our aim ever be broader and stronger fellowship and unity in work.

That delicate subject, the men, was given to Mrs. T. P. Carter, who treated it in her usual spicy vein. Men and women are more and more closely allied in the work of the world. We no longer hear of the force of a community being so many men but so many persons.

It is a woman who stands fast thru struggles, privations and hardships. The best church is the one in which men and women work together. If men are the pillars of a church women are its bolsters. We must not eulogize men too much for there was only one man in all history who could bear to be lionized and that was Daniel.

The Women of Today. Fittingly the theme of our ladies was given to Dr. R. O. Post. Women were once regarded as our inferiors but are now our equals. In the eternal distritribution of things God made—man and female and if we disregard that fact there is trouble. Woman, his distinct characteristics which make her in all things our helpers and indispensable. I would not condescendingly flatter woman but give her the words of praise she deserves. In misfortune she is steadfast; she makes home radiant and her tender love is a bond that binds earth to heaven.

The next speaker was the pastor, Rev. George E. Stickney. The gentleman said it was with mingled emotions that he rose to speak. It was indeed difficult to express the feelings in his heart. He had been won by the church when he first visited it for he had discovered what to him was well nigh an ideal people and body. It surely was near his ideal and with joy he accepted the call tendered him. The efforts they had made to please him had truly touched his heart. When he returned and saw how completely the paragon had been prepared for his use, a work which must have cost much effort and self-denial in hot weather his heart was indeed deeply moved. He had indeed a hard task in following the great men gone before but would earnestly do his best.

In imagination he saw so many things in the future; a place where there would be attractions for the whole of the family; the girls, the boys, the students, all gathering here to have a good time. A possible Bible school of four weeks, a playground and a community service. He thanked the good people from his inmost soul and hoped a grand future was in store for the church.

The last speaker was Mrs. Stickney, who spoke most felicitously. She said she had been reared a Methodist and as she had not yet united with the church she was a Methodist yet. But she found here the true spirit of Methodism and was certain she would have no trouble in working right along as a member of the church here. She spoke in a feeling manner of the cordial greeting that she and her husband had received; how her heart had been touched by the love manifested and assured all that her best efforts would be to prove herself worthy of the people's love.

The benediction by Mr. Stickney closed the formal part of the evening and many remained for a social time. It was indeed an auspicious beginning of the pastorate of the church's new shepherd.

FIGHTERS CLAIM PERFECT CONDITION

Both Kilbane and Frush Are Ready for Gung This Afternoon—Betting Favors Champion.

CLEVELAND, Sept. 16.—Featherweight Champion Johnny Kilbane and Danny Frush, of Baltimore, challenger, expressed themselves as being in perfect condition tonight after the final day of secret training for their 12 round decision bout here tomorrow afternoon. Frush weighed 125 1/2 pounds, half a pound less than he is required to make at ringside. Under the contract, Kilbane is to receive $60,000, win, lose or draw and Frush $2,500 for training expenses.

On the eve of the battle the champion has leaped from an even money choice to an 10 to 8 favorite. Jimmy Dunn, who up to last year was Kilbane's manager, is one of those betting against the boy he made champion. Many 1 to 4 bets are being made that Frush will win by a knockout.

The early vanguard of fight fans began arriving tonight. Thousands of others, including Tex Rickard, are expected tomorrow. Kilbane made a statement to-night that he does not anticipate any more trouble from Frush than from the other seventy odd aspirants he has boxed. He would not reveal his present plan of battle and close friends say he is going in to score a decisive victory.

Sammy Harris, Frush's manager, was just as confident that his boy would be the next champion. He predicted Frush would win within six rounds.

"I am just as confident that Frush will knock out Kilbane as I was that my other champion, Kid Williams, would knock out Johnny Cusack," he said.

Despite a prediction of fair weather, the promoters today insured themselves against rain with a $25,000 policy. The gate receipts already total more than $80,000. The promoters are sanguine that tomorrow's receipts will reach $125,000.

Daily Market Report

WHEAT DEVELOPED A LITTLE STRENGTH

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Wheat developed a little strength today helped by word that a new German credit was being arranged.
The market closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 3¢ higher with December $1.29 to $1.29 1/2 and May $1.33 to $1.33 1/2; corn unchanged to 1¢ lower and oats unchanged to 1¢ higher. In provisions there were no gains of 2 1/2 to 3¢.
At first the wheat market showed considerable weakness owing largely to a sharp break in sterling exchange. Complete ending of the Argentine drought counted also as a bearish factor and so did an apparent dull in export demand. Later, however, sterling turned upward again and more confidence in the foreign financial outlook was shown especially after information was received which gave some promise of better business condition in Germany. Bullish sentiment was fostered likewise by advice which emphasized the damage to wheat to shock in the northwest. It was said that arrivals at Minneapolis were damp and lacked quality, and that millars were becoming active buyers at Kansas City. Estimates of farm holdings of winter wheat indicated that only a small amount remained to come forward in some sections.

Corn was easy thruout the day
the bulk of the crop being safe from frost. Talk of prospective better export call tended to strengthen oats.

Higher quotations on hogs gave a lift in provisions.

Cash sales here were 9,000 bushels of wheat, 97,000 bushels of corn and 22,000 bushels of oats.
Vessel room for 640,000 bushels of corn was chartered at 2 cents to Buffalo.

Car lot receipts: Wheat, 56 cars; Corn, 341; oats, 58.

CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—There were reports of heavy buying of winter wheat at Kansas City on the part of northwest mills. The purchasing was said to total 500,000 bushels so far this week.

MRS. ANDERSON HOSTESS TO WOMAN'S CLUB BOARD

Interesting Discussion of Club Projects Heard at Chapin Session—Some News Notes.

Chapin, Sept. 17.—Mrs. W. W. Anderson was hostess to the Official Board of the Morgan County Federation of Clubs on Thursday, at her home, where the regular meeting was held and important business was attended to.

Owing to the threatening weather several of the precinct chairmen were unable to attend, however, a goodly number braved the elements and during the business session the present officers were reelected for the ensuing term.

Mrs. A. L. Adams gave some very interesting facts about the work in connection with the progress of the opening of the Morgan County Tuberculosis Sanatorium. Mrs. Adams also stated that she had allotted the most desirable room in the building to the Chapin Woman's club, they being the first to take up this worthy work.

During the luncheon hour Mrs. Anderson proved a most delightful hostess and the guests were unanimous in their praise of the beautiful and delicious luncheon served in their honor. The menu consisted of chicken pie, mashed potatoes, creamed lima beans, relish, hot rolls, salad, ice cream, cake candies and coffee.

Mrs. Howard Tucker and Mrs. H. J. Taylor and Miss Grace Tucker of Mexico, Mo., were guests present.

Miss Grace Tucker returned to her home in Mexico, Mo., Friday, after a visit of several days with her uncle, H. E. Tucker.

Arthur French left Wednesday for Alton to enter the military school at that place.

Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Williams arrived home Thursday from a visit with relatives in Greenfield.

MR. ANDRAS HOLDS TO HOPEFUL VIEW

Long Time Agriculturist Believes Farmer Who Keeps on Job Need Have No Fear.

J. C. Andras of Manchester, veteran scientist, farmer and stockman, was a business visitor in the city yesterday. Mr. Andras when asked by some of his local friends about farming conditions and the present difficulties, agreed that conditions are not satisfactory but took an optimistic view of the future.

"The farmer who keeps right on attending to business in the usual way and using his best judgment in farming and livestock operations will make it all right," Mr. Andras said. He continued, "There has been a terrific slump in the price of all things that the farmer has to sell and the difficulties of farming as a business have multiplied. The very radical change has not been fair to the farmer and his own operating costs have not declined the same proportion. Nevertheless, I do not believe that the farmer is justified in feeling discouraged."

"Various movements are under way for the improvement of his condition, and the combination of helpful things proposed will no doubt bring relief. The high prices of a year and two years ago cannot be expected but there will be the proper ratio between sales prices of farm product and the cost of production. So I believe that the farmer who does not get discouraged or panicky, who uses good judgment in his farming and livestock operations will at no distant date find that conditions are much more satisfactory and that agriculture as the basic industry has again come into its own."

COACH HARMON READY FOR WORK

Coach W. T. Harmon, director of athletics at Illinois college, returned home yesterday from Pittsburgh, Pa. Mr. Harmon, following his usual custom, went to Pittsburgh and spent some time in the camp of the University of Pittsburgh football squad, of which Glen Warner, the famous Carlisle mentor, is coach. Each year Mr. Harmon spends some time studying the methods of some of the leading coaches and he has attended summer schools of coaching under many of the leading football mentors of the country.

The next meeting of the society will be held at the home of Mrs. J. W. Leach, west of the city.

Helping Hand Class of Hebron Met Friday

HERMAN'S HAVE GRAND OPENING

Well Known Ready to Wear and Millinery Establishment Shows Many Beautiful Goods—Will Continue Today.

Yesterday and today are the dates for Herman's grand fall opening, an event to which the ladies of this city and vicinity for miles around, look forward with pleasant anticipations for they know they will never be disappointed. The apparel of a lady is the constant study of Mr. Herman and his accomplished and amiable wife and they have succeeded as years of success attest for their reliability in their constant watchword. Things going from their store must be first class and strictly as represented.

In millinery they are displaying a large line of beautiful goods. The Wharton Chapeaux, the Phipps hat and the Gage are among their many styles as well as their own designs which are always excellent. Then in their suit department they are as usual, up to date with the best in the market. In addition to all the regular styles and makes they have the garments made by LeVogue, the Redfern, the Worth, the Blackstone and many more. In the blouse department they have the Paul Jones and the Goody middles, so deservedly popular with all persons of good taste.

All day yesterday the store was thronged with delighted visitors and today the same attractions will be shown and enjoyed by large numbers who appreciate the efforts of such people as Mr. and Mrs. Herman to bring reliable and attractive goods to the city.

Reduction in Freight on Limestone

The Illinois Central has consented to reduce freight rates on agricultural limestone, and has expressed a willingness to join in with any other road or roads for shipments over more than one line on a basis of the reduced scale above one. Heretofore each road assessed a minimum charge of 50c per ton. This is certainly a great victory for the I. A. A.

Buying Limestone Co-Operatively

Ira P. Story and C. U. Million, E. A. Ransom and John R. Allen, P. J. Wolfe and Vetreus Blimling and C. D. Irlam represent three groups of farmers that have recently combined orders and bought limestone. This is certainly a step in the right direction. When several buy a car together, it can be unloaded without demurrage, and also results in giving service to the man who really does not wish a carload.

Poultry Culling in Order

September and October are the best months for culling the hens. Demonstrations have already been arranged for culling the hens. Demonstrations have already been arranged for five townships, but we should like to have demonstrations given in every community in the county. This is a form of personal service to which farm bureau members are entitled.

Six Startling Features of the Farm Problem

Victor Murdock of the Federal Trade Commission at Washington sees six startling features according to the American Farm Bureau Federation.

First: Tenancy, which is not best for agricultural thrift, is increasing by leaps and bounds.

Second: In the richer regions, farms are increasing in average size.

Third: Great areas of tillable land, in tillable sections, are not tilled.

Fourth: There is a measurable exhaustion of cheap available land in new states.

Fifth: The cities are gaining heavily in population at the expense of the country.

Sixth: The annual food reserves of the nation are gradually diminishing despite increased machine production.

MRS. MYRTLE TANDY TO GRAND LODGE

Mrs. Myrtle W. Tandy expects to start this morning for Toronto, Canada, to attend the sessions of the Sovereign Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. and the international association of Rebekah assemblies which convenes there September 19 to 23. Mrs. Tandy is secretary of the association and will in due time be advanced to the vice presidency and then to the presidency of the association a position which she is well qualified to fill.

The sessions will be filled with much of interest to the members. Tuesday there is to be a pageant illustrating the feeling of fraternalism that exists between the Rebekah assembly and the Grand lodge.

On Thursday afternoon Illinois will have a place on the program when Mrs. Ida E. G. Sherman of Chicago will give a lecture on the Biblical characters mentioned in the Rebekah degree.

Thursday evening Mrs. Tandy will attend a reception given by Grand Sire and Mrs. Oliver who are residents of Toronto in honor of Mrs. Hattie Reed Whittaker and Mrs. Martha A. Prescott, past Presidents of the International associations of Rebekah assemblies.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Are All Morgan County Soils Acid?—They are not. Some of our heavy clay soils popularly known as gumbo or pushumud fail to give an acid reaction. The soils in the Meredosia bottom, too, which are classed by the soil surveyors as bluish wash contain a considerable amount of carbonates and do not give an acid reaction. Our brown, silt loam or prairie soils and our yellow gray silt loams, or timber soil almost invariably change litmus paper from blue to pink. It pays to add limestone to acid soils.

Same Corn for Forty Years—While visiting the farm of D. F. Beauchamp of Meredosia recently we were shown a field of the tallest corn we had ever seen. The writer was just able to reach the highest ears with his fingertips. This is an exceptionally long eared, twelve rowed variety of yellow dent. The Beauchamp family has raised this variety for forty years.

Virginia Soybean—The new importation is now proving 100 per cent satisfactory. We expected it to coil around the corn so that a large percentage of the vine would go into the silo without extra labor. In the fields we have visited it does not seem to be living up to its reputation. Many vines creep along the ground and coil around some other hill of corn than the one in which they were planted.

Reduction in Freight on Limestone—The Illinois Central has consented to reduce freight rates on agricultural limestone, and has expressed a willingness to join in with any other road or roads for shipments over more than one line on a basis of the reduced scale above one. ### THE LUCKY NUMBER

In the item in Friday's Journal with reference to the drawing for "Prince Royal," it was stated that the lucky number was 772. This was in error, as 722 is the number which entitles the holder to the pig. The second number is 733 and the third 51. The holders of these numbers should see E. E. Henry, living a mile south of Woodson, as the pig is at his home.
